Benedetta brings extensive experience in asset management, investment funds and financial regulation. Her career spans international law firms, global financial institutions and Nextalia SGR, enabling her to advise clients and investors with a practical, business-oriented perspective and a strong understanding of market dynamics.

Drawing on her experience as General Counsel of Nextalia SGR, she combines strong regulatory expertise with a strategic understanding of investment and fundraising processes. She advises asset managers, investment funds and sponsors on product structuring, capital raising and alternative investment strategies.

She regularly assists Italian and international market participants in private equity, venture capital and private debt transactions, helping clients navigate complex regulatory frameworks through practical and commercially effective solutions.
